JOHN THOMPSON RANKIN, aged 84 years, a former resident of Ripley, now of McCoy Station, Ind., while in Ironton recently, had the following to say concerning ELIZA crossing the river on the ice, a part taken from The Iron on Register: "Mr. RANKIN was an eye witness of ELIZA's feat of crossing the Ohio river on the ice during the winter of 1858. He assisted her to climb the river bank and escorted her to the home of his parents, DAVID and HANNAH RANKIN. The latter good old soul gave the fleeing slave a can clothing and food and started her on her way towards Canada, the haven of fugitive slaves in those trying days. He remembers distinctly the underground passage the good people of Ripley constructed for the slaves who made their escape from cruel owners in Kentucky and other States. He said the river was not a floating mass of ice when ELIZA crossed, but was frozen solid. She was all right until within a few feet of the Ohio shore, where the ice broke. A board she had been given by a man in Kentucky here came in good play, and by its aid she was able to reach the shore. He remembers HALLEY's comet seventy-five years ago. He says it was much brighter then than now, and he well remembers the terror of the colored people when the comet first became visible. All of them, with but one exception, would not draw more than one day's rations, fearing that each day would be the last of the earth."

FREE ADVICE TO WOMEN

Women suffering from any form of illness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established this confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Never has she published a testimonial or used a letter without the written consent of the writer, and never has the Company allowed these confidential letters to get out of their possession, as the hundreds of thousands of them in their files will attest.

Out of the vast volume of experience which Mrs. Pinkham has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge needed in your case. She asks nothing in return except your good will, and her advice has helped thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, should be glad to take advantage of this generous offer of assistance. Address Mrs. Pinkham, care of Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Every woman ought to have Lydia E. Pinkham's 80-page Text Book. It is not a book for general distribution, as it is too expensive. It is free and only obtainable by mail. Write for it today.

Revival Services Continue
There will be revival services at the Third Street M. E. Church this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Just how much longer services will continue will be determined at tonight's service.

The services yesterday were attended by the largest congregations of the whole series, the Church being crowded to its full capacity last evening. The sermons at both services by Rev. Smith were powerful in their presentation of the Gospel. Seldom do we hear such plain Gospel sermons and it is just such that the people need. One had but to look over the audience to observe how wonderfully impressed every one was. This was especially noticeable at last evening's service when the Preacher preached on "Appearing at the Last Judgment." Deep conviction was in evidence on the faces of many. One young lady sought the altar for a better life and was blessed greatly. Several asked for prayers. You should attend these services. Come this evening. Come expecting a great meeting. You will not be disappointed.

For Constipation
A Medicine That Does Not Cost Anything Unless It Cures

The active medicinal ingredients of Rexall Orderlies, which are odorless, tasteless and colorless, is an entirely new discovery. Combined with other extremely valuable ingredients it forms a perfect bowel regulator, intestinal invigorator and strengthener. Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy and are notable for their agreeableness to the palate and gentleness of action. They do not cause griping or any disagreeable effect or inconvenience.

Unlike other preparations for a like purpose, they do not create a habit, but instead they overcome the cause of habit acquired through the use of ordinary laxatives, cathartics and harsh physic, and permanently remove the cause of constipation or irregular bowel action.
I will refund your money without argument if they do not do as I say they will. Two sizes, 25c and 10c. Sold only at my store—The Rexall Store. Thos. J. Chenoweth, Second and Sutton streets.

WORK THAT TELLS
PLENTY OF IT HAS BEEN DONE RIGHT HERE IN MAYSVILLE

Cures that last are cures that tell. To thoroughly know the virtues of a medicine you must investigate the cures and see if they prove permanent. Doan's Kidney Pills stand this test, and plenty of proof exists right here in Maysville. People who testified years ago to relief from backache, kidney and urinary disorders now declare that relief was permanent and the cure perfect. How can any Maysville sufferer longer doubt the evidence? William H. Paul, 333 East Third street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"For two years I had pains in my back and other troubles, caused by disordered kidneys. When Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention I began their use and they soon gave relief. I cheerfully recommend this remedy as one that lives up to the claims made for it."

The above statement was given on December 13th, 1904, and on February 6th, 1908, Mr. Paul said:
"My opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills has not changed since I first recommended them. My cure has been permanent and I am now in good health."

Did a Thorough Job

A letter from Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Mackenheimer tells of a very thorough robbery committed a few days since at their home at San Antonio, Texas. Mr. and Mrs. Mackenheimer have a very beautifully furnished cottage in that city, but during their absence one evening recently they came very near losing their furniture and home, too. About everything movable, except the flooring, and possibly the bathtub and kitchen range—perhaps the latter was shot—was carted away, including a $150 gold watch, all their other jewelry and silverware. However, some days later the Sheriff of that county got on the track of the thief, arrested him and recovered every single article stolen. Mrs. Mackenheimer is a sister of Mrs. James Cullen of this city, who but recently returned from a month's visit at San Antonio.

Discovered in Time

Saturday evening at 6:45 o'clock an alarm was sent in from District No. 36, which proved to be a rear outbuilding on the C. H. Frank premises in Court street and immediately opposite Traxel's bakery. The blaze was discovered by Mr. William Traxel, who, after sending in an alarm, played a stream on the blaze with a small hose, thus preventing the fire spreading to W. F. Power's ware-room adjoining. The Fire Department responded quickly and extinguished the fire. Again at 9:45 a still alarm was sent in, calling the firemen to the same locality, the fire having broken out anew, which was soon extinguished. The damage sustained altogether is inconsiderable, not over $50. The origin of the fire is not known. Most likely, however, a lighted match was thrown on the floor by some one having occasion to visit the place. The location was a good one for a big conflagration had it not been discovered in its incipency.

The gauge marks 18.5 and falling.

BANG! BANG!

Husband—Did you hear the storm when it broke this morning?
Wife—That wasn't the storm. It was the new girl washing the dishes.

George Little, an engineer on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, running between Paris and Cincinnati, has been an engineer for more than twenty-six years—twenty-three on the L. and N. and three on the C. and O.—and in all that time he has been in charge of an engine he has never had a mark against his record.

Mrs. C. C. Leer and daughter, Miss Carroll, of near Paris, narrowly escaped serious injury a night or so since by a folding bed closing up on them. Mr. Leer heard the crash when the bed fell over and went at once to their relief. Mrs. Leer was badly bruised but her daughter escaped unhurt.

COUNTY MANAGER WANTED.

A leading Fraternal Insurance Society is desirous of securing the services of a reliable white man to take exclusive charge of Mason county as its Organizer and Manager. A well-known resident of this county is preferred. He must be an honest and capable man, able to furnish good references and to command the respect of his fellowmen. It is not absolutely necessary that he give his whole time at the start, but it will be later on as the work progresses. This Society writes direct business and also operates through a lodge system. It pays cash benefits for sickness, injury, accident and death, and its certificates are in great demand wherever introduced, being strictly new and popular. This is a splendid opportunity for a good man, as a very liberal offer will be made to the one who can meet the necessary qualifications. Write at once and give full particulars of self in first letter. Address in confidence.
